LaGrange College
Volume LXVII

Quadrangle Dedication

The 1984 Quadrangle Staff and Senior Class are honored to dedicate the 1984 Quadrangle to Dr. Max C. Estes. Dr. (Doc) Estes has been serving LaGrange College since 1962 as the Chairman of the division of Fine Arts and Professor of Speech and Drama. Doc has been interacting in the lives of the students through show productions, directing, and teaching; and as a vital part of student life, he has become a cherished friend. While at LaGrange College, Doc has presented over 100 plays and musicals on the stages of Dobbs, Price Theatre, and Callaway Gardens. His work has not only touched the college campus but the community and state as well. It is very exciting to know that LC has such great pride in someone as deserving as Doc Estes.

Dr. Max C. Estes

1,000 interlocking pieces are thrown on a table, turned face up, and grouped according to similarities.

All the corner and end pieces are connected to form a border, from which all other pieces are joined.

Different pieces are tried in many places until the perfect fit is found. Each piece has its place in the puzzle; and without it, the puzzle is not complete.

Certain pieces are easy to fit while others don't seem to fit anywhere; but, all belong somewhere.

Soon, all the pieces fit together and the puzzle is complete:

Not a piece is missing or left-over, all have a place.

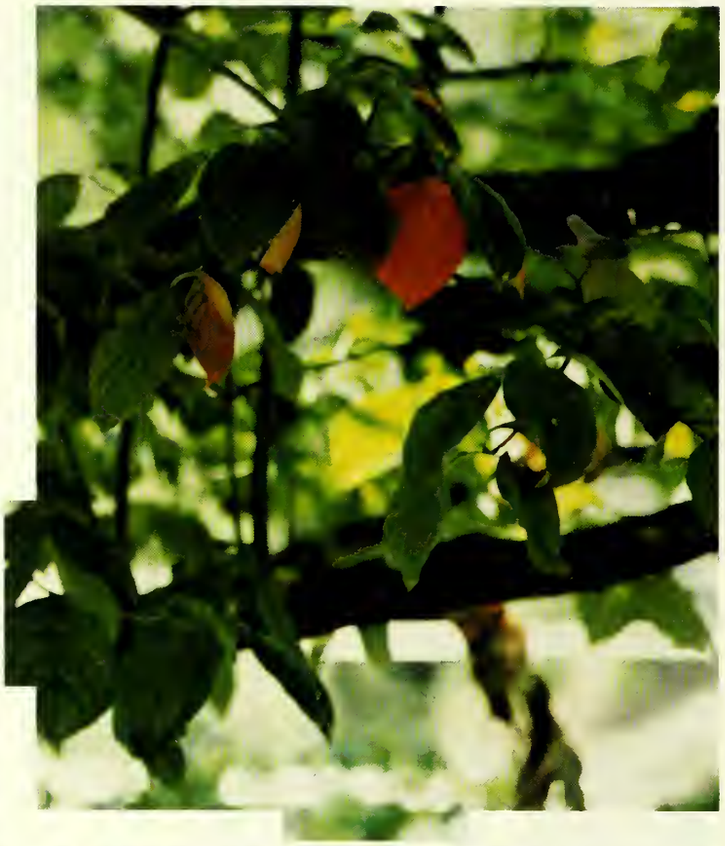
Where do you fit in?

Have you found your place, or . . .

. . . are you still trying to fit in somewhere?

Becoming a part of the total picture of La-Grange College takes some time and consideration.

There are many opportunities in this community of education . . .



. . . but which one is for you?

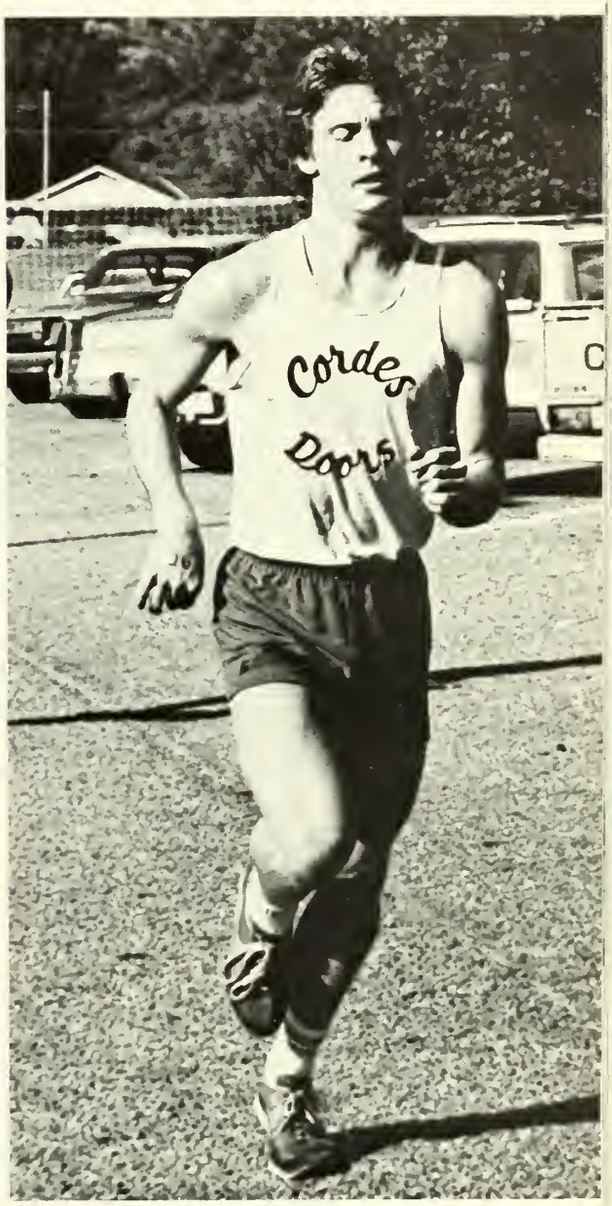
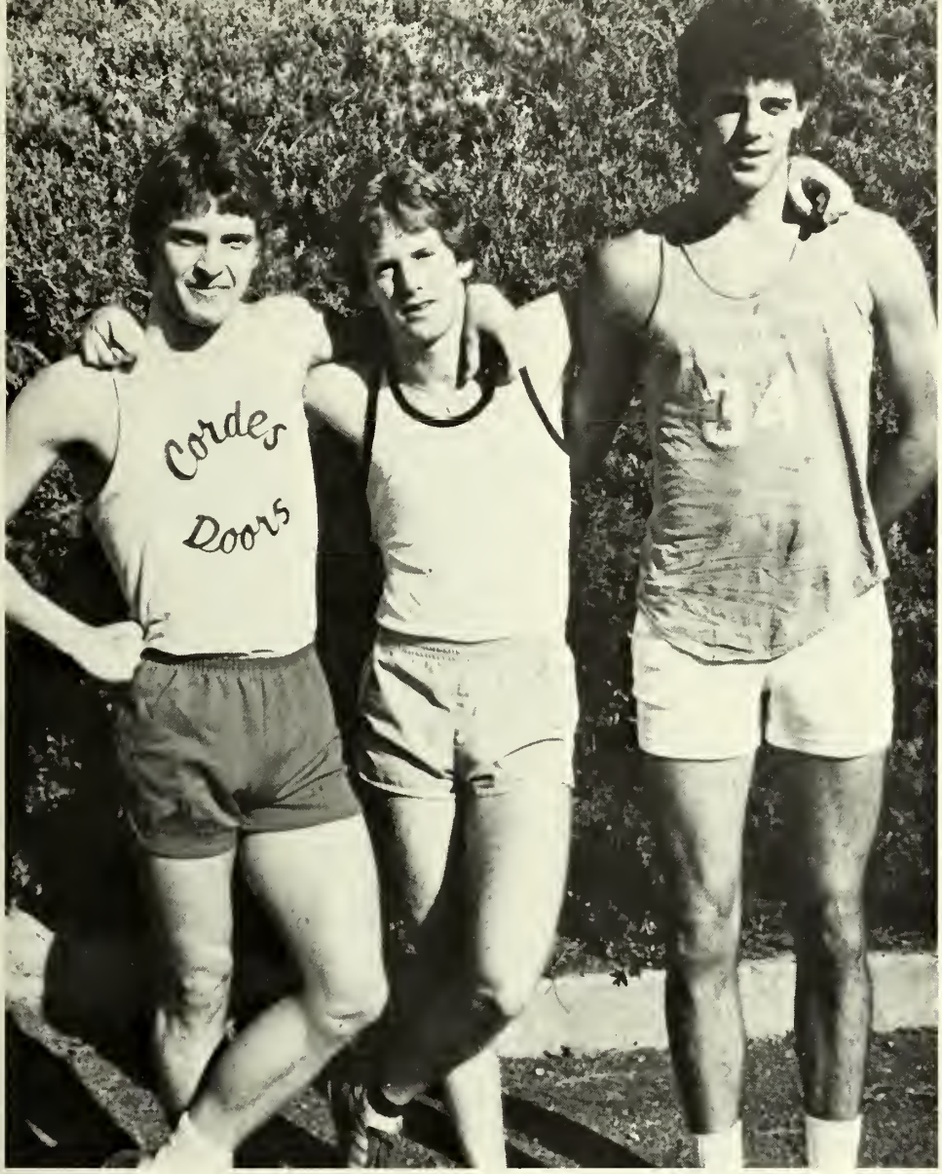
HOMECOMING 1983



Homecoming Hill Run . . .

In keeping with the spirit of Homecoming, the SGA sponsored a Hill Run for LC students, faculty, and administration. Two races were run: one for females and one for males. The women ran the course one time which was the equivalent of a mile. Gerri Wright captured first place with a time of 6 minutes 15 seconds. Rene Eller placed second, and Latrisha King came in third place. The men ran the course three times which was the equivalent of three miles. Ray Lail placed first with a time of 15 minutes and 41 seconds. David Shealy and Darryl Hodge placed second and third respectively.

A Success



The Gong Show

Homecoming Week 1983 began with a gong as students competed in the SGA sponsored "Gong Show." An array of talent and stand-up comedy was judged by an outstanding team: Nancy Alford, Dr. Murphy, and Robyn Carlton. Paul Bailey captured first place with his original lyrics to Kenny Rogers' "Lady" which Paul entitled "Gravy." Competition continued to mount as the campus organizations battled against each other in an all-out war: Slop Fight!! Ammunition ranged from flour to mud, raw eggs to ketchup, and water balloons to rotten tomatoes.

Mr. Panther

During May Day Week, the SGA sponsored an all-male beauty pageant (with a twist). This was no ordinary beauty pageant since the contestants dressed as females. The ten contestants competed in evening gown, bathing suit, and talent. Four finalists were named, and Mr. Panther was determined from these four finalist following a question and answer session. Phyllis (Phil) Dodson received the distinct honor and title of Mr. Panther while Chrissy (Chris) Rumble, Stu Ellen (Stu) Marshall, and Frances (Frank) Sharp placed second, third, and fourth respectively.

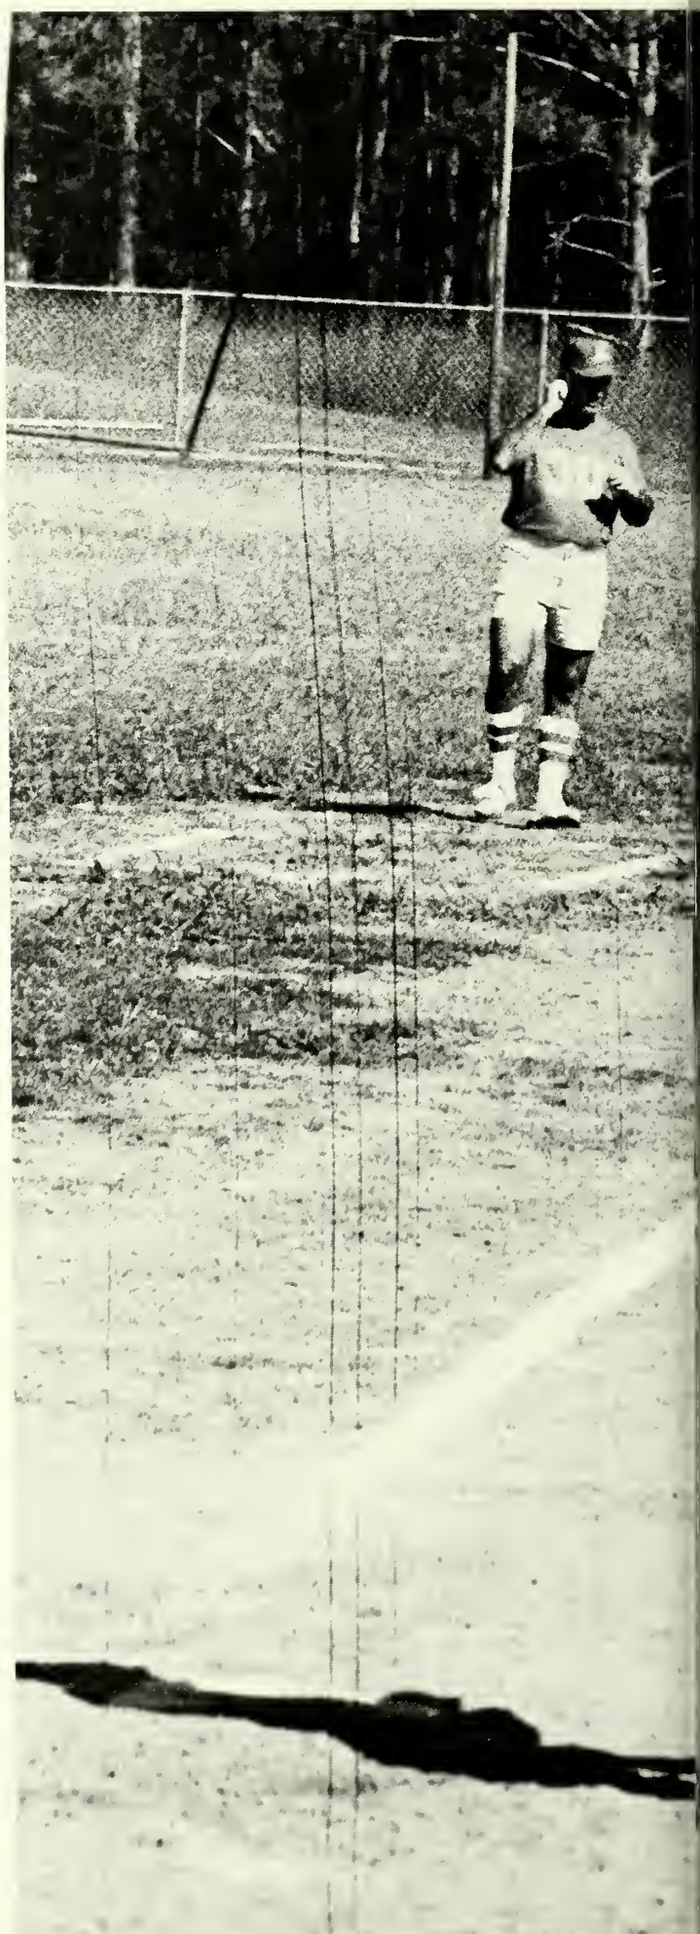
The Beginning of a Tradition . . .



Softball

The 1984 Softball Season was definitely a learning season. After having folded the previous year, this year's team was determined to stick together through thick or thin, win or lose. The Lady Panthers did manage to win a few games and give a good showing in region and district tournaments, but nothing can ever take the place of experience. Van Keys, graduate student at West Georgia College, assumed the position of coach, and he gave his best to develop a foundation for women's softball in the future. The team will lose a fourth of its players to graduation, and there is a very good chance that a district title will come in the near future.

Friends are friends forever . . .

if the Lord's the Lord of them.

And a friend will not say never . . .

Cause the welcome will not end

Though it's hard to let you go, in the Father's hands we know . . .

that a lifetime's not too long to live as friends.

Closing

In many ways, life at LC is much like a puzzle.

There are approximately 1000 people, interlocking pieces, that converge on this hill from all over the world to form a complete picture of LaGrange College.

Faculty, Administration, and Staff form the border of this picture, from which all other people are joined.

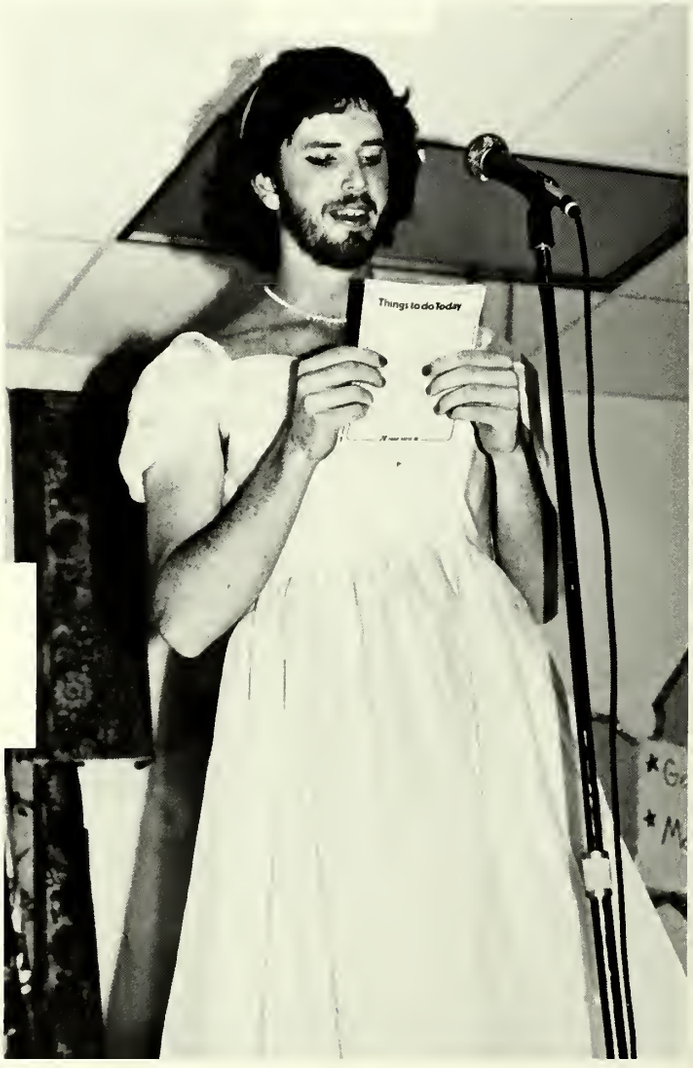
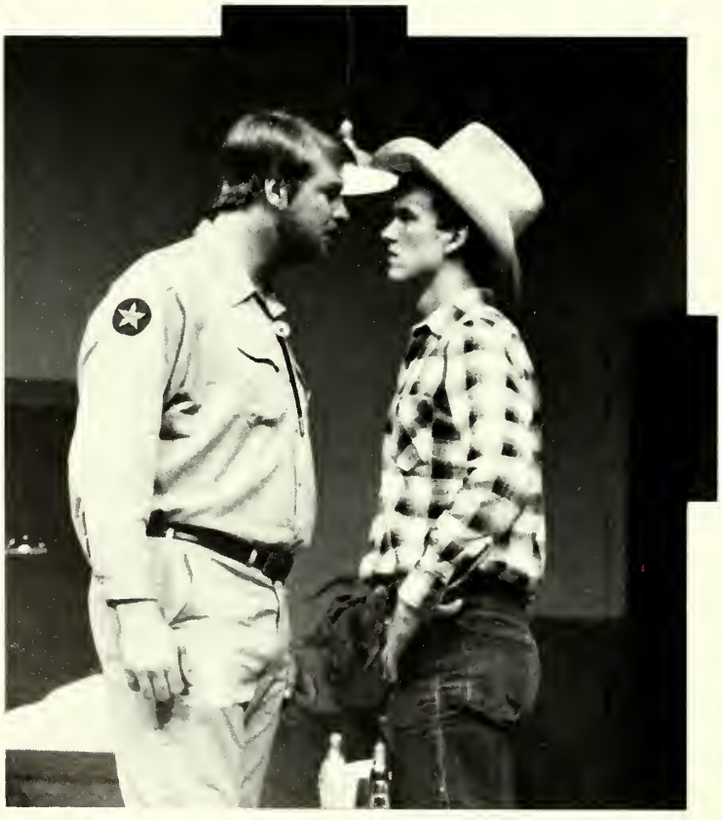
Each student seeks to find his place at LC.



He has a place, and without him, the picture is not complete.

Certain people find their places easily and quickly,



while others struggle to find where they belong.

With time, each person finds his place and the picture becomes complete:

No one is missing or left-out, all have a place.
